

PER CURIAM.

Byron L. Coleman appeals an adverse grant of summary judgment in Coleman's state law-based employment action. Coleman contends that ConAgra, Inc. and its wholly owned subsidiary Swift & Company wrongfully terminated his employment and fraudulently misrepresented the basis for his termination. After de novo review, we are satisfied the magistrate judge correctly applied state law, and the record supports the magistrate judge's ruling. Because a comprehensive opinion in this meritless diversity case would lack precedential value, we affirm for the reasons set forth in the magistrate judge's well-reasoned opinion. See 8th Cir. R. 47B.
