Before RICHARD S. ARNOLD and BEAM, Circuit Judges, and CONMY,<sup>1</sup> District Judge.

PER CURIAM.

After a two-day trial, the appellant, Adolfo Junes-Rios, was convicted of possessing cocaine with the intention of distributing it, in violation of 21 U.S.C.

§ 841(a)(1). The District Court<sup>2</sup> sentenced Mr. Junes-Rios to five years and six months in prison.

On this appeal, the defendant argues that the evidence was insufficient to justify the jury's verdict, that he was incorrectly charged, for sentencing purposes, with one kilogram of cocaine, and that the District Court erred in denying a two-level adjustment for acceptance of responsibility. We have read the briefs and heard oral argument. The findings of the District Court are not clearly erroneous, nor did the Court commit any error of law. We do not believe that the precedential value of this case requires any more extended discussion.

We express our appreciation to appointed counsel for his service on this appeal.

Affirmed.

CLERK, U.S. COURT OF APPEALS, EIGHTH CIRCUIT.
