Before BOWMAN, LOKEN, and BYE, Circuit Judges.

PER CURIAM.

Gerald Leach appeals his drug conspiracy conviction and the denial of his motion for a new trial. Leach contends that the jury's verdict is not supported by sufficient evidence, and that the district court¹ abused its discretion by not granting a motion for a new trial based on a claim that the prosecutor knowingly used perjured testimony. The record contains substantial evidence on which the jury reasonably could have found Leach guilty. The district court thoroughly and accurately addressed the claim of prosecutorial misconduct in its order denying the motion for a new trial, and we find no abuse of discretion. A further discussion of Leach's arguments would serve no useful precedential purpose. We thus affirm. See 8th Cir. R. 47B.
