

PER CURIAM.

Former Iowa inmate Jeffery D. Williams, Sr., and his son Jeffery D. Williams Jr., a current Iowa inmate, appeal the district court's<sup>1</sup> dismissal of their civil rights action. After careful review of the record, we conclude the district court properly dismissed the Williamses' action because their claims were either time-barred, see Wycoff v. Menke, 773 F.2d 983, 984 (8th Cir. 1985), or failed to allege sufficient facts to support a conspiracy claim or from which retaliatory animus could be inferred, see Atkinson v. Bohn, 91 F.3d 1127, 1129 (8th Cir. 1996) (retaliation); McDowell v. Jones, 990 F.2d 433, 434 (8th Cir. 1993) (conspiracy). Further, we find no abuse of discretion in the district court's denial of the senior Mr. Williams's motion to consolidate, or in its decision to not appoint counsel. Accordingly, we affirm. See 8th Cir. R. 47B.
