PER CURIAM.

David Pardue appeals from the District Court's<sup>1</sup> order finding him in violation of the conditions of his supervised release, and modifying those conditions. As to the finding of a violation, we hold that this issue is not ripe for decision. The District Court did not revoke Mr. Pardue's supervised release, nor did it impose any punishment for the violation it found. As to the modification of the conditions of supervised release, we see no error of fact or law, especially in view of the fact that Mr. Pardue, through counsel, agreed to the modification.

Affirmed.
