Appeal from the United States
District Court for the Eastern
District of Arkansas.

[UNPUBLISHED]

Submitted: April 6, 2001

Filed: April 18, 2001

Before MORRIS SHEPPARD ARNOLD, RICHARD S. ARNOLD, and FAGG, Circuit Judges.

PER CURIAM.

In this direct criminal appeal, Gregory Lamont Charles contends the district court committed reversible error by refusing to declare a mistrial and by allowing the government to bolster the testimony of one of its witnesses. Having satisfied ourselves that the district court correctly resolved Charles's challenges and that the appeal simply involves the application of settled principles of law to unique facts, we conclude the issues do not warrant a comprehensive opinion. We thus reject Charles's contentions and affirm his conviction without further discussion. See 8th Cir. R. 47B.
