PER CURIAM.

After a bankruptcy court<sup>1</sup> determined that Eddie V. Hamilton had converted Nancy Hamilton's property, it determined that she had suffered $43,840.00 in damages and held that this debt was not dischargeable. See 11 U.S.C. § 523(a)(6). The district court<sup>2</sup> upheld the bankruptcy court's order on appeal. Mr. Hamilton asserts that in reaching its judgment the bankruptcy court applied the wrong measure of damages
