Before LOKEN, BOWMAN, and KELLY, Circuit Judges.

PER CURIAM.

Laney Harris, Keith Bursey, and Fred Bursey appeal following the district court's¹ adverse grant of summary judgment in their pro se 42 U.S.C. §§ 1983 and 1985 action raising claims arising from the towing and attempted towing of their vehicles from private property.

Upon careful de novo review, see Peterson v. Kopp, 754 F.3d 594, 598 (8th Cir. 2014) (review of summary judgment); Faibisch v. Univ. of Minn., 304 F.3d 797, 803 (8th Cir. 2002) (review of judgment on pleadings), we conclude that the district court properly dismissed the federal claims raised in the complaint. Among other reasons, appellants were not entitled to a pre-deprivation hearing or a court order before their vehicles could be removed from their properties, after the vehicles had been deemed abandoned under city ordinances. See Allen v. City of Kinloch, 763 F.2d 335, 336 (8th Cir. 1985). We reject as meritless appellants' contention that the district court failed to consider all of their federal claims, and we also conclude that the court properly acted within its discretion in declining supplemental jurisdiction over the pendent state-law claims and dismissing those pendent claims without prejudice. See 28 U.S.C. § 1367(c)(3).

Accordingly, we affirm. See 8th Cir. R. 47B.

¹The Honorable Susan O. Hickey, United States District Judge for the Western District of Arkansas.
