

United States Court of Appeals
For the Eighth Circuit

No. 16-3921

United States of America

Plaintiff - Appellee

v.

Dewuan C. Williams

Defendant - Appellant

Appeal from United States District Court for the Western District of Missouri - Kansas City

Submitted: June 12, 2017

Filed: June 15, 2017

[Unpublished]

Before WOLLMAN, COLLOTON, and GRUENDER, Circuit Judges.

PER CURIAM.

Dewuan C. Williams directly appeals the sentence he received after pleading guilty to a felon-in-possession offense. His counsel has filed a brief under Anders v. California, 386 U.S. 738 (1967), in which she argues that Williams's sentence is unreasonable and requests leave to withdraw.

Upon careful review, we conclude that the district court¹ did not impose an unreasonable sentence. See United States v. Feemster, 572 F.3d 455, 461-62 (8th Cir. 2009) (en banc) (explaining that sentences are reviewed under deferential abuse-of-discretion standard and discussing substantive reasonableness). In addition, having independently reviewed the record pursuant to Penson v. Ohio, 488 U.S. 75 (1988), we find no nonfrivolous issues for appeal. Accordingly, we grant counsel leave to withdraw, and we affirm Williams's sentence.

¹The Honorable Dean Whipple, United States District Judge for the Western District of Missouri.
