to a plea agreement that includes an appeal waiver. His counsel has moved to withdraw and has filed a brief under Anders v. California, 386 U.S. 738 (1967).

Upon careful review, we conclude the appeal waiver is valid, enforceable, and applicable to the sentencing issues raised in this appeal. See United States v. Scott, 627 F.3d 702, 704 (8th Cir. 2010) (reviewing validity and applicability of appeal waiver de novo); United States v. Andis, 333 F.3d 886, 889-92 (8th Cir. 2003) (en banc) (holding an appeal waiver should be enforced if the appeal falls within the scope of the waiver, the defendant knowingly and voluntarily entered in the plea agreement, and its enforcement would not result in a miscarriage of justice). We have also independently reviewed the record under Penson v. Ohio, 488 U.S. 75 (1988), and have found no non-frivolous issues for appeal outside the scope of the appeal waiver. Accordingly, we grant counsel's motion to withdraw, and we dismiss the appeal.
