Before FAGG, LOKEN, and MORRIS SHEPPARD ARNOLD, Circuit Judges.

PER CURIAM.

Deon Love appeals the drug-related sentence imposed by the district court under the sentencing guidelines. Love contends he was entitled to a reduction to a sentencing range of 151-188 months because of Love's role in the offense. We disagree.

At sentencing, the district court granted the government's motion for a downward departure and sentenced Love to 84 months imprisonment and five years supervised release. Because Love's 84-month sentence represents a downward departure from the guideline range sought by Love, Love's sentence is not reviewable. See United States v. Baker, 64 F.3d 439, 441 (8th Cir. 1995).

We affirm Love's sentence.
