
No. 95-3223SD

United States of America,

Appellee,

v.

Kermit Fred Murschel, also known as Kermit F. Maurchel,

Appellant.

*
*
*
*
*
*
*
*
*

Appeal from the United States
District Court for the District of South Dakota.

[UNPUBLISHED]

Submitted: March 14, 1996

Filed: April 10, 1996

Before FAGG, JOHN R. GIBSON, and WOLLMAN, Circuit Judges.

PER CURIAM.

Kermit Fred Murschel appeals his bankruptcy fraud convictions. Murschel raises several contentions related to the government's failure to prove he was the person who made the false statements and filed the false schedules, the sufficiency of the evidence to support the jury's convictions, and the admissibility of evidence offered by Murschel. A review of the record shows that Murschel's contentions are without merit. Because the appeal involves the straightforward application of settled principles of law, a discussion of the issues will serve no useful purpose. Thus, we affirm Murschel's convictions without an extended opinion. See 8th Cir. R. 47B.

A true copy.

Attest:

CLERK, U.S. COURT OF APPEALS, EIGHTH CIRCUIT.