Appeal from the United States
District Court for the

[UNPUBLISHED]

Submitted: March 19, 1996

Filed: April 3, 1996

Before McMILLIAN, BRIGHT, and BEAM, Circuit Judges.

PER CURIAM.

Jerome Schiefen appeals from the final order of the District Court¹ for the District of South Dakota, granting the United States summary judgment in this action brought pursuant to 28 U.S.C. § 1345, seeking foreclosure of liens held by the Internal Revenue Service and Farmers Home Administration, the sale of property, and the distribution of proceeds. The district court also concluded certain transfers of real and personal property were fraudulent conveyances. Schiefen argues the district court lacked jurisdiction to entertain this suit. We have carefully reviewed the record, and we conclude Schiefen's arguments on appeal are frivolous and entirely without merit.

Accordingly, we affirm the judgment of the district court. See 8th Cir. R. 47A(a). Schiefen's several motions on appeal are denied.
