Appeal from the United States
District Court for the Western District of Arkansas.

[UNPUBLISHED]

Submitted: June 27, 1996

Filed: July 5, 1996

Before BEAM, LOKEN, and MORRIS SHEPPARD ARNOLD, Circuit Judges.

PER CURIAM.

Teresa Prescott was convicted of aiding and abetting money laundering, after a trial in which her husband and two other co-defendants were also convicted of drug offenses. We affirmed her conviction on appeal. United States v. Prescott, 42 F.3d 1165 (8th Cir. 1994). Prescott now appeals the district court's¹ order denying her 28 U.S.C. § 2255 motion to vacate her sentence.

On appeal, Prescott argues that a post-conviction forfeiture decree caused her conviction to violate the Double Jeopardy Clause; that she received ineffective assistance from counsel before, during, and after the trial; and that she was prejudiced by counsel's representation of multiple defendants. After careful review of the record, the district court's thorough opinion, and Prescott's arguments on appeal, we conclude the district court's judgment denying relief was correct. Accordingly, we affirm. See 8th Cir. R. 47B.
