Before BOWMAN and HEANEY, Circuit Judges, and BOGUE,* District
Judge.

PER CURIAM.

This case involves a claim by plaintiffs Instant Web, Inc. and Victory Envelope, Inc. that they were overcharged when they prepaid certain loans made to them by defendant U.S. Concord, Inc. The District Court¹ granted summary judgment in favor of defendant. Plaintiffs appeal. Having considered the issues that plaintiffs have raised in this appeal, we conclude that the decision of the District Court was correct. No error of law appears, and an opinion by this Court would lack precedential value. Accordingly, we affirm the judgment of the District Court without further
