
No. 95-1343

Derrick Merritt Bey; Darryl
C. Merritt Bey,

Plaintiffs - Appellants,*

v.

Paul Delo; Ronald Roper; Gregory *
Wilson; Larry Youngman; Ray *
Pogue; Fred Johnson; Linda *
Wilkson; Lonnie Salts; Robert A. *
Cole; Brian O'Connell; Unknown *
Dunn ("John Doe #1"); John *
Doe #2, *

Defendants - Appellees. *

*
*
*
*
* Appeal from the United * States District Court for * the Eastern District of * Missouri.

[UNPUBLISHED]

Submitted: September 10, 1996

Filed: September 23, 1996

Before MAGILL, FLOYD R. GIBSON, and MORRIS SHEPPARD ARNOLD, Circuit Judges.

PER CURIAM.

Appellants Derrick Merritt Bey and Darryl Merritt Bey, brothers and fellow inmates at the Potosi Correctional Center in Missouri, appeal the district court's¹ order granting summary judgment to various prison officials in this 42 U.S.C. § 1983 action. In light of this Court's recent opinion in Wycoff v. Nichols, No. 95-1117, 1996 WL 498904 (8th Cir. Sept. 5, 1996), the Beys' procedural due process claim is without merit. After careful review of the materials submitted to us by the parties, we conclude that the district court committed no error in disposing of the Beys' remaining grounds for relief. Because an opinion would lack precedential value, we summarily affirm. See 8th Cir. R. 47B.

¹The HONORABLE DAVID D. NOCE, United States Magistrate Judge for the Eastern District of Missouri, to whom the case was submitted by consent of the parties.

A true copy.

Attest.

CLERK, U.S. COURT OF APPEALS, EIGHTH CIRCUIT.