PER CURIAM.

Carolyn A. Williams appeals the district court's grant of summary judgment upholding the Social Security Commissioner's decision to deny Williams's application for disability insurance benefits. After careful review of the administrative record and the parties' submissions, we conclude substantial evidence supports the decision of the Commissioner that Williams is not disabled for Social Security purposes, and the judgment of the district court was correct. Accordingly, we affirm. See 8th Cir. R. 47B.
