Appeal from the United States
District Court for the Eastern District of Missouri.
[UNPUBLISHED]

Submitted: February 27, 1997

Filed: March 10, 1997

Before BOWMAN, WOLLMAN, and BEAM, Circuit Judges.

PER CURIAM.

John D. Lockhart, an inmate at Farmington Correctional Center, appeals from the order denying his motion for a temporary restraining order/preliminary injunction enjoining the disclosure of his psychiatric records in this action brought under 42 U.S.C. § 1983.

Finding no error in the district court's¹ finding that Lockhart has waived any psychiatrist-patient privilege by putting his psychological condition into issue, we affirm the order.

¹The Honorable Charles A. Shaw, United States District Judge for the Eastern District of Missouri.

See 8th Cir. Rule 47B.

A true copy.

Attest:

Clerk, U.S. Court of Appeals, Eighth Circuit.
