

United States Court of Appeals

FOR THE EIGHTH CIRCUIT

No. 96-3412

Rose Thorpe,

Appellee,

v.

Wal-Mart Stores, Inc., a
Delaware Corporation,

Appellant.

*

*

*

*

*

*

*

*

*

*

Appeal from the United States
District Court for the Eastern District of Missouri.

[UNPUBLISHED]

Submitted: April 14, 1997

Filed: May 5, 1997

Before BOWMAN, WOLLMAN, and HANSEN, Circuit Judges.

PER CURIAM.

Wal-Mart appeals from a jury verdict in favor of Rose Thorpe on her negligence action and challenges a number of evidentiary rulings made by the District Court.¹ Having reviewed the record and the parties' briefs, we conclude that no reversible error appears. Accordingly, we affirm the judgment of the District Court. See 8th Cir. R. 47B. Thorpe's motion to correct her brief is granted.

¹The Honorable Lawrence O. Davis, United States Magistrate Judge for the Eastern District of Missouri, who presided over the case with the consent of the parties in accordance with 28 U.S.C. § 636(c) (1994).

A true copy.

Attest:

CLERK, U. S. COURT OF APPEALS, EIGHTH CIRCUIT