Appeal from the United States District Court for the District of Minnesota.

[UNPUBLISHED]

Submitted: November 17, 1997

Filed: November 26, 1997

Before BOWMAN, LAY, and MURPHY, Circuit Judges.

PER CURIAM.

Carmen C. Reul appeals from a summary judgment entered by the District Court¹ in favor of Manpower International, Inc., a temporary employment agency and the defendant in Reul's action under the Americans with Disabilities Act and the Minnesota Human Rights Act. Having reviewed the case, we are satisfied the District Court properly concluded that Reul failed to come forward with sufficient evidence to create a question of fact as to whether Manpower's legitimate, non-discriminatory reasons for not placing her in any positions were a pretext for unlawful discrimination. Summary judgment thus was correctly entered.

The judgment of the District Court is affirmed. See 8th Cir. R. 47B.
