Appeal from the United States
District Court for the Eastern District of Missouri.

[UNPUBLISHED]

Submitted: December 12, 1997
Filed: December 18, 1997

Before BOWMAN, WOLLMAN, and LOKEN, Circuit Judges.

PER CURIAM.

Nelson W. McVey appeals the judgment of the District Court¹ affirming the Commissioner's denial of McVey's application for disability benefits. Having considered all of McVey's arguments for reversal, we conclude the administrative law judge properly evaluated the opinions of the treating physicians, properly discounted ¹Honorable Thomas C. Mummert, III, United States Magistrate Judge for the Eastern District of Missouri, to whom the case was submitted with the consent of the parties in accordance with 28 U.S.C. § 636(c).

McVey's subjective complaints, and properly determined that McVey could perform the full range of sedentary work and therefore was not disabled.

This case presents no novel issues to justify extended discussion. The administrative decision is supported by substantial evidence on the record as a whole, and the judgment of the District Court is affirmed. See 8th Cir. R. 47B.
