

United States Court of Appeals
FOR THE EIGHTH CIRCUIT

No. 97-3834MN

Francis Dick,

*

*

Plaintiff-Appellant,

*

*

v.

*

*

Minnesota Teamsters Public and Law
Enforcement, Local 320; Harold Yates,
Its Trustee; International Brotherhood of Teamsters;

*

*

*

*

*

Appeal from the United States
District Court for the District of Minnesota.

Defendants-Appellees,

*

*

[UNPUBLISHED]

Central States Southeast and Southwest
Area Pension and Health & Welfare Fund,

*

*

*

*

Defendants.

*

Submitted: May 11, 1998

Filed: May 21, 1998

Before RICHARD S. ARNOLD, JOHN R. GIBSON, and FAGG, Circuit Judges.

PER CURIAM.

Francis Dick appeals the district court's order dismissing Dick's complaint against his former employer in this employment-related lawsuit. After de novo review, we conclude the district court's grant of judgment on the pleadings was proper. We agree with the district court that Dick failed to exhaust his union remedies. We also conclude that Dick's additional arguments on appeal are without merit. We affirm. See 8th Cir. R. 47B.

A true copy.

Attest:

CLERK, U.S. COURT OF APPEALS, EIGHTH CIRCUIT.