

Before McMILLIAN, LOKEN, and MURPHY, Circuit Judges.

PER CURIAM.

Heincie John Haller appeals from the final judgment entered in the United States District Court<sup>1</sup> for the District of South Dakota granting defendants' motion to dismiss Haller's complaint for failure to state a claim under Fed. R. Civ. P. 12(b)(6). In his complaint, Haller asserted broadly that defendants violated various "GOD Given" and constitutional rights in connection with a prior judicial proceeding, and he did not elaborate on the factual basis for his claims in opposition to the motion to dismiss. Having carefully reviewed the record and the parties' briefs, we agree with the district court's conclusion that Haller's complaint failed to state a claim, and, contrary to Haller's argument on appeal, he was not entitled to a jury trial. We therefore affirm the judgment of the district court. See 8th Cir. R. 47B.
