Filed: June 19, 1998

Before FAGG, BEAM, and HANSEN, Circuit Judges.

PER CURIAM.

Shelton Earl Corley appeals the district court's denial of Corley's motion to enforce his plea agreement. Corley sought enforcement of the government's agreement to dismiss two weapons charges in exchange for Corley's guilty plea to a drug charge and his continuing cooperation. Under a second plea agreement, however, the government dismissed the drug charge and the weapons charges. We conclude Corley's appeal is mooted by the dismissal of the challenged charges and dismiss for lack of jurisdiction.
