

Arkansas inmate Joseph L. Stephens appeals the district court's¹ order dismissing without prejudice his civil rights complaint after Stephens failed to comply with multiple court orders directing him to file an amended complaint clarifying his claims against certain defendants, and warning him that he risked dismissal if he failed to comply. Having carefully reviewed the record and Stephens's brief, we conclude that the district court did not abuse its discretion, see Edgington v. Missouri Dep't of Corrections, 52 F.3d 777, 779 (8th Cir. 1995) (standard of review), and that Stephens's arguments on appeal lack merit. Accordingly, we affirm the judgment of the district court. See 8th Cir. R. 47B.
