Filed: December 23, 1998

Before FAGG, HEANEY, and WOLLMAN, Circuit Judges.

PER CURIAM.

Ruth Ann Smith appeals the district court's grant of summary judgment affirming the Commissioner's decision to deny Smith disability insurance benefits and supplemental security income. After careful review of the parties' briefs and the administrative record, we conclude substantial evidence supports the decision of the Commissioner that Smith is not disabled for social security purposes. We agree with the magistrate judge that the testimony of a vocational expert was not required because "[Smith] had no nonexertional impairment that significantly affected her residual functional capacity to perform a full range of sedentary work activities." Having concluded the magistrate judge's decision is correct, we affirm on the basis of the magistrate judge's memorandum and order. See 8th Cir. R. 47B.
