PER CURIAM.

Jeanette Willcuts appeals from her convictions for assault with a dangerous weapon, assault resulting in serious bodily injury, and possession of a firearm while committing a violent crime, and from the sentence imposed by the district court. Willcuts's arguments that her double jeopardy and equal protection rights were violated are foreclosed by the contrary holdings of the Supreme Court and this court. We also reject Willcuts's double jeopardy-based ineffective assistance of counsel argument as meritless. An extended discussion of Willcuts's arguments would serve
