

Beck appeals from the district court's¹ denial of his motion for contempt in this case involving a prison's inmate mail regulations. We grant Beck's motion to proceed in forma pauperis, assess the $105 appellate filing fee against Beck, and direct the district court to calculate his initial partial appellate filing fee and to order collection of that fee and the remaining installments from him in accordance with 28 U.S.C. § 1915 and the procedures outlined in Henderson v. Norris, 129 F.3d 481, 484-85 (8th Cir. 1997) (per curiam). We also deny his motion for appointment of counsel. Finally, after careful review of the record and Beck's brief, we affirm for the reasons stated by the district court. See 8th Cir. R. 47B.
