PER CURIAM.

Cleshay L. Johnson pleaded guilty to conspiring to possess with intent to distribute crack cocaine and now appeals from the guidelines sentence imposed by the district court. Johnson's counsel filed a brief under Anders v. California, 386 U.S. 738 (1967), contending that Johnson's prison sentence is longer than necessary to achieve rehabilitation, retribution, or deterrence. We reject counsel's argument. Cf. United States v. Hutchinson, 926 F.2d 746, 747 (8th Cir. 1991) (per curiam) (defendant's request for sentence at low end of Guidelines range is unreviewable.

Having carefully reviewed the record, we find no nonfrivolous issues. See Penson v. Ohio, 488 U.S. 75, 80 (1988). We thus affirm Johnson's sentence.
