Before McMILLIAN, LOKEN, and MURPHY, Circuit Judges.

PER CURIAM.

Duane Wright, an inmate at the Iowa State Penitentiary, sued its former warden, its security director, and members of its Certified Emergency Response Team under 42 U.S.C. § 1983, alleging they used excessive force and denied him adequate medical care during and after a prison uprising. Following a jury trial, the district court¹ entered judgment for defendants. Wright appeals, arguing that he presented evidence establishing his claims of cruel and unusual punishment. After careful review, we are
