

PER CURIAM.

J. Malcolm Thompson, a nontenured state university professor, appeals the district court's ruling dismissing Thompson's claims for violation of his procedural and substantive due process rights based on the university's decision not to renew his one-year teaching contract. Having reviewed the record and the materials submitted by the parties, we see no error by the district court. We also conclude that an extended discussion would serve no useful purpose. Believing the district court is correct, we affirm on the basis of the district court's ruling. See 8th Cir. R. 47B.
