

PER CURIAM.

George Brown appeals the district court's<sup>1</sup> order granting summary judgment to defendants in his 42 U.S.C. § 1983 action, in which he claimed that various defendants conspired to assault him, used excessive force in moving him to another cell, failed to take corrective action, and were deliberately indifferent to his medical needs. Upon de novo review of the record and the parties' briefs, we conclude summary judgment was proper. We also reject as meritless Mr. Brown's additional arguments on appeal that the district court erred by considering his deposition, refusing to appoint him counsel, not ordering him to amend his complaint, and refusing him a continuance to obtain affidavits.

Accordingly, the judgment is affirmed. See 8th Cir. R. 47B.
