Before MURPHY and MAGILL, Circuit Judges, and REASONER,¹ District Judge.

PER CURIAM.

U.S. Environmental and Mark G. Edlund brought a complaint and request for injunctive relief against Craig M. Beeson in state court, claiming that he had breached a settlement agreement arising out of a prior state action. They subsequently filed an action in federal district court asserting the same claims, and Beeson moved to dismiss the federal action. After a hearing, the district court² granted the motion to dismiss and awarded Beeson attorney fees. U.S. Environmental and Edlund appeal. After a careful review of this fact-specific record, we conclude that the district court should be affirmed. So ordered. See 8th Cir. R. 47B.
