Before BEAM and MORRIS SHEPPARD ARNOLD, Circuit Judges, and PANNER,¹
District Judge.

PER CURIAM.

Kelly Preston and Thomas J. Barnes were both convicted following a jury trial on three counts of mail fraud, in violation of 18 U.S.C. § 1341 and 18 U.S.C. § 2. The district court² sentenced Preston to twenty-four months on each count, to be served concurrently and Barnes to thirty-three months on each count, to be served concurrently. On appeal, they challenge both their convictions and sentences on various grounds. Having carefully reviewed the parties' briefs and the extensive record, we find no error of fact or law that would require reversal. We therefore affirm without further discussion. See 8th Cir. R. 47B.
