Before MURPHY and MAGILL Circuit Judges, and SMITH*, District Judge.

PER CURIAM.

Raul Sanchez entered a condition guilty plea to two counts of possession with the intent to distribute methamphetamine and was sentenced to 168 month imprisonment. He now appeals the denial of his motion to suppress the evidence of six pounds of methamphetamine which were delivered to him. He claims that a search warrant was defective in that it had insufficient and misleading information about the drug dog use by law enforcement officials. After reviewing the record, we agree with the district court¹ that under the totality of the circumstances the good faith exception of United States v. Leon, 468 U.S. 897 (1984), applies and we conclude that the court did not err in denying the motion to suppress. Because we agree with the essential points in the district court's opinion, we affirm without further discussion. See 8th Cir. R. 47B.

*The HONORABLE ORTRIE D. SMITH, United States District Judge for the Western District of Missouri, sitting by designation.
